

The demipair/Aupair family agreement.

1. As a Host Family we agree to provide a private room, breakfast(eg: eggs, jam or peanut butter, yogurt, toast or cereal, milk, coffee or tea), lunch (e.g : left over from dinner, sandwiches plus a piece of fruit, salads, cold meats, etc) and dinner(eg: hot healthy meals (usually prepared by the family)), access to the Internet 7 days per week. This is in exchange for 20 hours of help with housework and childcare as outlined in the Family Profile.

-Is your family able to provide the Demi-Pair with a normal family environment?

Yes or No

2. As a Host Family we understand that it is our responsibility to train our Demi Pair / Aupair to do the work and help our Demi Pair / Aupair understand the provided Working Schedule.

We understand that a Demi Pair / Aupair is not a professional nanny or housekeeper. We understand that we have to keep the jobs to the ones outlined in the Family Profile Form. We understand that it is our responsibility to provide our Demi Pair / Aupair with adequate information about our family's standards and expectations to help our Demi Pair / Aupair settle in easily and quickly.

-Can you provide a fair and suitable work schedule and be flexible if needed?

Yes or No

3. The Demi Pair / Aupair shall normally work the following days: Monday to Friday, weekends off. Weekend work must be presented and agreed by both parts in advanced for approval.
4. Any PUBLIC HOLIDAY must be a day off for the Demi Pair / Aupair unless discussed and agreed by both parts (family and Demi Pair / Aupair) with enough notice to suit both sides.
5. Family must provide a maximum of 20 hours a week unpaid. In case family needs extra hours, that can be offered to the Demi pair as an option. If it is not suitable to the demi pair, the demi pair has the right to chose to not do it.
In the case of demi pair doing over 20 hours a week, the visa pre-requirements must be met according with the Department of Immigration and a minimum pocket money of $15 per each extra hour must be paid directly to the demi pair.
6. In the case of placement is found not suitable for reasonable reasons, the Demi Pair / Aupair or family must give 2 week notices to IWHP and to each other.
